

ADDRESSING THE HIDDEN BURDEN OF MIGRAINE: AN OPPORTUNITY FOR EUROPEAN ACTION

MEP José Inácio Faria and The Council for Advocacy on Migraine are pleased to invite you to a discussion in the European Parliament on the socio-economic cost of migraine and the challenges that people living with migraine face in the workplace. To this end, The Work Foundation will present its research on improving employment-related outcomes for people with migraine.

REGISTER
HERE

Wednesday, 27 February, 12:30 - 14:30
Members Salon, European Parliament, Brussels

Invited speakers:

- Elena Ruiz de la Torre, President, European Migraine and Headache Alliance & Chair of the Council for Advocacy on Migraine
- Prof. Peter Goadsby, Neurologist, King's College London & Vice-Chair of the Council for Advocacy on Migraine
- Dr. Francisco Alvarez, Deputy Head of Unit, DG EMPL, European Commission
- Dr. Lesley Giles, Director, The Work Foundation
- Raimo Antila, Director General, Department for Work and Gender Equality, Ministry of Health and Social Affairs in Finland
- Elena Bonfiglioli, Regional Business Leader Health and Life Sciences EMEA, Microsoft

Please contact sylvia.githugu@fticonsulting.com for any questions on registration.

This event is supported by Novartis