

RETHINKING SCHIZOPHRENIA

Rethinking Schizophrenia Webinar – Germany Country Profile

AI-supported prediction and intervention: A comprehensive approach to integrated biopsychosocial schizophrenia care

Practical Details

Organisers: European Brain Council, German Brain Council, Department of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, University of Lübeck, Lübeck, Germany

Date: 4 March 2026, 14:30 – 16:00 CET

Location: Virtual Webinar

Preliminary Agenda

1-5 min	General introduction	Prof. Peter Falkai (Munich)
6-10 min	Introduction Rethinking Schizophrenia	Prof. Pavel Mohr (Czechia)
11-21	Talk 1: AI in early detection and intervention innovations	Prof. Nikolaos Koutsouleris (Munich), Dr. Léon Franzen (Lübeck)
21-30	Talk 2: From genetics to animal models	Prof. Sabine Hölter-Koch (Munich)
31-40	Talk 3: Inpatient-equivalent psychiatric care (StäB)	Prof. Andreas Bechdolf (Berlin)
41-50	Talk 4: Lifestyle and exercise interventions	Prof. Rebekka Lencer (Lübeck/Münster)
51-55	Presentation: lived experience expert & peer support worker	Bianca Rudloff (Lübeck)
56-60	Presentation: Relatives and affected people & patient advocate	Gabriele Glocker (Bundesverband der Angehörigen psychisch erkrankter Menschen; BApK)
5 min	Buffer
66-85	Roundtable (host: Prof. Peter Falkai)	Prof. Christoph Correll (Berlin), Prof. Andreas Meyer-Lindenberg (for GBC), Bernhard Seidenath (Policymaker Bavaria), Gabriele Glocker (BApK), Health insurance representative
85-90	Final remarks and comments	Frédéric Destrebecq (EBC), Vinciane Quoidbach (EBC), Prof. Peter Falkai (Munich)